Selection criteria and process:

The selection of participants will be based on the relevance and applicability of their technologies, their investment and business models and their capacity to promote inclusive and sustainable industrial development in Kenya, particularly in the challenging environment of Turkana and Garissa Counties. Corporates, SMEs, social entrepreneurs, innovators, impact investors and consultants with relevant project portfolios and contacts, especially from Germany and other European countries, are encouraged to apply.

Participants should come from the five priority sectors listed in the invitation.

Places and funding are limited and UNIDO ITPO Germany reserves to right to decide on the final selection of participants in close consultation with UNHCR Kenya.
